3rd Term 2018/2019 Session

Dear Parents/Guardians,

The 2018/2019 academic session has come to a successful conclusion. We give glory and honour to the Almighty for seeing us through. We appreciate your unflinching support and cooperation in our task of moulding our future queens and role models. This term was largely busy but in spite of that, the college was able to accomplish all that we set out to do.

1.0 Academic

The first and second Continuous Assessment tests which attract 30% of the terms' assessment were successfully conducted. This was followed by the promotion examination.

Remedial classes were organized for the different classes. The examination classes – SS3 and JS3 had additional extra lessons in the morning before the commencement of regular classes and in the evening after the normal general remedial classes. This was to enable teachers complete WASSCE, NECO SSCE and BECE Syllabus.

2.0 Indiscipline

Management is still confronted with cases of unruly behaviour amongst senior students. SS3 students bully their mates apart from bullying SS2 students, SS2 bully SS1 students, there is gang-beating, extortion, cooking in the hostel and all kinds of unruly behaviour. Eradicating these unwholesome behaviour requires your total support and collaboration. I implore you to let us always be on the same page in condemning these acts. Besides, you must not relent in counselling your wards during the holiday, so that they can realize the folly in misbehaving.

3.0 Improper dressing / use of #### unauthorized items

Improper dressing is against the dress code of the college. Any student found wearing adjusted skirt so as to make such skirt or house wear look tight and skimpy will have her name written down, and be issued with a new uniform which the parents will have to pay for. This also applies to students who have outgrown any of their uniforms. Similarly, all unauthorized items that are not included in the college list of approved items will be seized and destroyed. Parents should note that this includes, phones and other forms of electronic devices etc.

4.0 Events Speech Day / Prize Giving Ceremony

The College had its Speech and Prize Giving Ceremony on the 11th July, 2019. Academic excellence, hardwork and good moral behaviour were rewarded during this occasion. The recipients of the awards were full of joy and a sense of fulfilment for being chosen out of so many others for a well-deserved honour. The 1st Lady of Lagos State, Her Excellency Dr. (Mrs) Ibijoke Sanwo Olu, attended the event and also commissioned the new Geographical Garden.

4.1 Cultural Day

The Cultural Day closely followed the Speech and Prize Giving Day. This was held in honour of the graduating students. It was full of glamour, colour, fun-filled and enjoyable. The graduating students were highly dressed in their various traditional attires. Staff were also dressed to reflect their ethnic background. Food, beads and all kinds of traditional paraphernalia were on display. The Alani of Idoani Oba Dr. Major General (rtd) Olufemi Olutoye and the Yeyeluwa of Idoani, Prof. Mrs. Omotayo Olutoye graced the occasion. The Yeyeluwa who is the first female Professor of Yoruba in Africa also happened to have been the Head Girl of Queen's College in 1953.

4.2 Valedictory/Graduation Ceremony

12.0 Conclusion

"The golden role of parenting is to always show your children the kind of person you want them to be. Remember that children are impressionable". Elizabeth Roxas.

Now that your girl is at home, check their results, note her weak areas and work on how she can improve on them. Also, ensure you engage your daughter profitably at home and see that she walks within safety bounds. The holiday could be a time for your daughter to learn a new skill, go on excursions or visit new places in addition to having holiday coaching. Furthermore, we encourage parents to spend quality time with their daughters and get to know them better.

We want to remind parents to also prepare for the new session by getting all items that their daughters will need and paying fees on time. God will provide for you to give your daughters the best. Wishing you a wonderful, relaxing and peaceful holiday. God bless you!
